Our guide covers every step and point of information you require for creating a brochure in Google Docs.Completely Free templates are also available that you can use with just one click.If we talk about creating brochures on Google Docs, we can divide it mainly into two parts as the view of Google Docs.The first is to create a Brochure by ourselves by making each page or part of the Brochure.And the second one is by taking any template and then customizing it to create the Brochure we need.However, both ways are going to be easy for you. It is because we provide you with instructions on both ways to make your Brochure. If you ask me which one way is better, then my answer is that both methods have their pros and cons.The first way gives us the freedom to test our creativity and a chance to create the Brochure which is available in our mind or our imagination. And the second way provides us with the template to save our time. We have to upload and enter our content in it.Now the choice is yours; if you want to test your creativity on the Brochure, then the first way is for you. And if you're going to save your time, then the second way is best for you.You do not need to decide it just right now; first read both the ways and then decide which method is perfect for you. So let's get started.How to Make a Brochure On Google DocsAs we said in the upper paragraphs, there are two ways to create the Brochure in google docs. The first is by ourselves, and then the second is by selecting the template. Let's focus on both and understand both ways.Create a Brochure by Ourselves without any TemplateIf you want to make the complete template independently, open the new document in google docs. "To create the tri-fold brochure, make your document landscape first. Click on the File tab and select Page Setup, and then click on Landscape orientation. After that, click on OK. Next, select the format tab and click on columns and then 3 columns to create the tri-fold brochure. Start inserting designs and texts column by column to generate the tri-fold brochure in google docs."Now let's understand it in detail and step by step:Create the Brochure, open google docs, and then click on the plus icon to open a new document.First, make your paper the landscape. Follow these steps to make it landscape.Click on the "File" tab and then "Page setup" to open the page setup settings. Now Select the "Landscape" orientation and then click on OK. Click on the "Format" tab from the menu bar.Next click on "Columns>Three Columns" to create the tri-fold design brochure. Now start typing the text or making the design from the first column. Once you have completed creating the Brochure, download it and print it.The way to download or print any brochure from google docs is available in the separate section below.Create a Brochure by Using a TemplateThe easiest way to create a brochure in google docs is to choose the template and then edit it. Just make the changes that we want to start Brochure. First, let's see open google docs and then click on "Template Gallery" to explore lots of templates. Now select any one brochure template for your Brochure and then edit the template as you want and onto the content as you need.You can also use the templates that we have given in this article.
