When players download first the game start with 500 gems (250 of which you are forced to use during the tutorial and OTHERS 8 If you rush the buildings and troops when prompted). Additional gems can be earned in-game by completing obstacle results or compenses or purchased with real money. The gems can be used in different ways: there are several objects, like the flag Pirates, the ancient barbarian statue, the powerful statue and huts of the manufacturer, which can be purchased only with a considerable amount of gems. Gems can be used to buy other resources such as gold, elixir or dark elixir in variable quantities, gems can also be useful Zate to increase or finish training troops in the barracks and dark barracks, go or finish the production of spells in the spell factory and in the dark spell factory and increase or finish the production of siege machines in the workshop. The gems can be used to request the troops of the Clan castle before the recovery of doing it expires. They can also be used to perform "fast donations", which gives troops to others without needing to train them. Gems can also be used to instantly complete the construction or updating of buildings, updates in the laboratory and the star laboratory and the reconstruction of ruined buildings in the base of the manufacturer. Players can also accelerate the production of resource collectors such as gold mines, Elixir collectors and Dark Elixir drills for a period of time using Gems. Heroes can be recovered or their healing rate can be increased by gems. Gems can be used to buy shields of different durations or a 2-hour village guard, which will protect your base from attacks. Gems can be used to buy magic items from the merchant. In the builder base, the gems can be used to instantly get the next win bonus set. They can also be used to quickly activate the clock tower. Gemme can also be used to change the name of the player, after he / she has used the change of free name with the price increase from 500 up to a maximum of 10,000 based on this post on the official clan of the clan site. Gems can be used to purchase additional war basis slots in the editing modal of the village. More information on gems can be found on the resource page. Buy Gems Gems are available for purchase in the store treasury menu. For more information on more currencies, visit in-app purchases. Gems Gems Gems can be earned in the game by completing the results. When complete the challenges in the results menu, for example, "Clear 50 obstacles", players are rewarded with gems. When players get 3200 trophies, 2000 gems will be assigned (3715 if you count all gems assigned by trophies). This is the greatest quantity of gems that players can earn by results, use them wisely. Another way to earn gems is to clarify obstacles, which are an infinite source (although slow) of the gems. The obstacles will give experience and can also give up to 6 gems whenever they are canceled, even if sometimes they may not give any gems. There is also a special known obstacle The gem box, which always produces 25 gems when they delete, but are much more rare than normal obstacles. Players can also earn gems by completing certain events. For example, 'win 10 multiplayer battles using 10 wizards' This type of event could give you instant and XP gems. The highest quantity of gems ever earned from an event is 250 and the higher quantity of XP earned is 600 points. An additional (even if limited availability) The way to earn gems is to be one in the first 20 players of the first 3 clans. At the end of each period of two weeks, the first 3 clans earn 50,000 gems for 1. Ä ¸, 30,000 gems for 2. Ä ¸, and 15,000 gems for the 3rd; These totals are divided divided Among the first 20 players of the respective clans. Gems can be extracted in the gem mine, which is in the base of the manufacturer, even if the process is slow, with a maximum production rate of 4.8 gems per day. Players can win gems directly from clan games if their clan has unlocked its reward levels. Any magical objects won through clan games or other means can be sold for gems. The seasonal challenges of August 2019 has awarded gems ranging from 5-20, up to a total of 250. Resource premiums in seasonal challenges can be sold for up to 5 gems if they cannot be rendered fully due to lack of space of storage. The quantity of gems earned by this conversion depends on the proportion that cannot be claimed: 1 gem is given for every 20% of the reward that cannot be claimed, rounded (to a minimum of 1 gem). Trivia Clash of Clans is free to play, but it contains a premium currency (in this case Gems) available for the purchase that offers players benefits at stake. These types of games are called "Freemium" games. In real life, the buds resemble emeralds. While players buy great quantities of gems, the cost per gem decreases. Many (if no more) high-level players buy great quantities of gems (these players are often called "gemmers"); Jorge Yao, who was one of the best players in the world, declared in the interviews he had spent over $ 2,500 buying gems. It takes much more gems to heal a hero or to request the troops of the Clan castle compared to finishing updates or troop training; for example, it takes 7 gems to finish an update or troop training with 20 minutes remaining, but it takes us 42 gems to request the clan The castle troops still immediately after requesting and 23 gems to heal a hero with a remaining 20 minutes. Between November 24th 2014 and December 8, 2014, iOS users were able to purchase a packet of gems (red) for $ 4.99 to help search for AIDS. When they received a red shield on the town hall. Room.
