Muppet Treasure Island (Soundtrack) Jim Hawkins (Kevin Bishop) Gonzo (Dave Goelz) Rizzo The Mouse (Steve Whitmire) "Something Better" is a movie music, Treasure Island Muppet. It is sung by Jim Hawkins (with the vocals of Kevin Bishop), and his self-played friends Gonzo and Rizzo about Jim's Lament in his life in the inn and his desire to go out for an adventure. Lyrics (P.S. The letters between paragraphs [] are those that were not used in the film, but on the soundtrack) Jim: I wake up every day and wonder what. It seems to me that there must be something else: something more than stacks of dishes and washing this old floor if I had my desires pick-up, I wish this door. Because I'm hungry for adventure, and I'm fed up with this routine. If I do not have any excitement soon, I'll lose my head. I want a life that is full of emotions that are savage and free. There has to be something better, something better, something better, there has to be something better than that for me. Jim: I look around here and I want to cry. Rizzo: (Ah, I also.) Jim: I feel like the world is passing me. Gonzo: (It's!) Jim: And I just can not stop asking me, am I condemned to wash and dry? And is it a curse that I am under to do until I die? Gonzo: (Oh, I hope not.) Rizzo: (Yes.) Jim: When I could be a Gonzo explorer: (Make sure you could.) Jim: Sailing for distant lands Rizzo: (Well, no. The so fast.) Jim: Instead of spending every afternoon, just taking Dashan's hands. My future seems right nowhere I want to be. All three: It has to be something better something better Jim: It has to be something better than that for me. Gonzo: Now you're talking. If it is strange and wild, let's and find. "The Crazy, Better," is what I would say. Rizzo: Yes, this is true. To tell you the truth, I would not really care. Gonzo: (mind what?) Rizzo: If we met sometimes with ten square meals per day. Gonzo & Jim: Let the danger call my name. Rizzo: If this happens, I'll hide. Jim: I'll put my courage to the test ... Gonzo: And I'll be by your side. Rizzo: (He'll be by your side.) Jim: It has to be something better than that ... Gonzo & Rizzo: (Something more than that ...) Jim: I know there's a lot outside ... All three: see. Jim: And I know this life that I'm living can not be my destiny. All three: It has to be something better something better Jim: It has to be something better than that for me ... GONZO: And ! Rizzo: Wait a minute, and you? All three: There is something better than this for you and me !!! Rate me song by Helen Gallagher

Girls:
There is to be something better than that, I have to be something better to do.
And when I find something better to do, I'll get up, I'm leaving
I'm going to get up, go out and do!

There has to be some respectable comments, there has to be something easy to learn.
And if I find myself something that half half I can learn, I'll get up, I'm leaving
I'm going to get up, go out and learn! All these jokers, as I hate them with their graves, grabbing, grabbing, conquering, t-shirt, handling, bonding, pinching there has to be a little cleaning than this, there is to be a good reason for to live.

When I find some kind of life I can live, I'll get up, I'm going to leave, I'll get up, get out and live! Right!
Nickie:
I get it! I understood! I will be a receptionist in one of those glass office buildings nine to five, I'll have my own writing machine, and water cooling parties and Office ...
