The á € ¨ Bitchiná € ¨ Velocity Ridesá € ¨ guest, Kindig remained impressed by the caliber of available vehicles and the spectacularity of the assigners. á € ¨ œWe we have been there with more than millions of dollars of vehicles sold. á € ¨ œRenordo which was the year in which Barrett-Jackson sold Ron Pratta GM Futurliner.á € ¨ Kindig since he sold a drink of vehicles through Barrett Jackson, including a 1968 Camaro, Mustang from 1967 , Nova of 1966 and a chevy from 1937. á € ¨ œBoy we did very well with all of them, says. á € ¨ œ It was a great experience with Barrett-Jackson. I don't sell any car auction unless Barrett-Jackson. á € ¨ The auction of this year is fixed for Saturday 11 January, to Sunday 19 January. Thousands of cars, both old and new, will be exhibited at the Westworld of Scottsdale. Several celebrities will also be auction, including the Cadillac Series 62 Deluxe convertible of Travis Barker 1941 and the former Quarterback Denver Broncos Dodge Viper 1992 by John Elway. Kindig is not different. He sells a custom suv chevrolet blazer of 1972 without a reserve. The green and white colors represent an ultra clear contrast from the inside to the outside. Painted in PPG green forest all over-qm sheet metal and finishes with a vanilla top. Kindig says it looks great on its lowered position thanks to the Accuair suspension. Under the bonnet there is a GM Performance 153 6.2-liter V8 engine, detailed to look at part of the era and supported by a four-speed 4L65E automatic transmission. The interior is made of factory-style beer foam leather. The interior has a complete and personalized stereo. It happens so that Jerry always has a project; A machine that is customized or two in the work. At this time he announced that he had five stages of design or working. One was finished earlier this year and brought to the Detroit Autorama to be a contender for the prestigious Á € ¨ á, ~ Á "Ridler Award". Because it turns out its 1934 Ford pickup received one of the great 8! It is one of the 8 vehicles selected by the show committee in contention for the Ridler Award that had to be announced at the Awards ceremony on the last day of the show. His pick-up does not win. However, thousands of spectators appreciated the hundreds of Jerry changes He had done to this pick-up. Chip Foey has arrived and complimented Jerry on the design, color and execution of the details made to the vehicle. In an interview with Jerry I discovered that he had worked on this truck out and since 1972. That What is special about this vehicle: has a Ford Block-Block engine with a double Super Charger roll and an electronic fuel injection. The upper part has been copied from 4.5 Á € ¨ á, ~ and has been channeled On the rails of the frame 2.25. It has an abbrev bed Customized hiatus with an articulated floor. Sfare so you can see the custom suspension and the stainless steel gas tank. The rims are in personalized aluminum that resemble Diamond T 1930 pick-up bors with special hubs caps. The cabin has a leather interior radius of customized puncture and obviously would not have been a special boiling bar without a transmission at four speed .Jerry do not tell us what the other projects were right now, but they would have been announced as they are completed and ready For various appearances of shows.
