Forums > Last day on Earth > General Last Day on Earth: Survival is a RPG developed by Kefir Games, a company specialized in role and combat games. The game is currently in beta v1.14.4 and is available for both Android and iOS platforms. The game earns 4.5/5 points with over 3 million reviews and over 50 million downloads. Plot Last day on Earth: the game of survival shooting is set in a post-apocalyptic world. In 2027, the world must witness an explosion of a new infectious disease. That disaster spread rapidly and uprooted, destroying almost humanity. Don't stop there, all the people who died from this epidemic began to turn into zombies and infect others for no reason. Only a few people with high resistance have not been infected, they are trying to survive the ruins of the world. Survivors must monitor indicators such as hunger and thirst to support their lives. They must collect valuable resources to create weapons. Everything to serve the institute to destroy countless zombies that are wandering out there. Survivors must defeat those who invade their lands not only by force, but also by their own cunning. They must build a powerful fortress or raid other surviving territories to take loot and rare resources. After all, everyone can do anything to survive. The huge weapons sets Last Day on Earth: Survival has a diverse range of equipment including armor, weapons, food, transportation and a number of other tools. Armor is an element that players can equip to reduce damage when they took hits from enemies. It can be obtained through the realization or collection of objects in play. It is not possible to stack the armor, its effect only works when it is placed on appropriate body parts such as head, body and legs. When equipped, each dress will change the appearance of the player. Clothing often made by fur helps protect against cold in winter places. Weapons are elements that players can use to damage and destroy creatures in the game. As armor, weapons cannot be stacked in a position, but players can equip the same weapon on both positions. When used too hard, weapons will lose the duration and need to be fixed. Some of the most used weapons are the Lancia, Hatchet, Iron Hatchet, etc. will bring important useful features for all circumstances. Food items are the type of object you used to restore HP, ask for hunger, thirst or versatile use of all three. They can be collected directly from the environment or made at the laboratories. Common foods are RoastedCarrot Stew, Jerky, ... Transportation is a specialized product that can increase the speed of movement and unlock new positions on the map. Vehicles that can be used in the game are Chopper, ATV, Zombie Truck. Alternatively, you can also be equipped with tools such as the Raw Fiber Hammer, Crowbar. Craft Last Day on Earth Survival has 117 items available designed so that can adjust freely. Furniture elements that players can place, move or collect in Base Builder. The furniture is mostly made, but sometimes they can be withdrawn from AI Survivors. Work stations are mobile used to convert materials into objects according to the formulas available. You can change your weapons to increase the attributes of weapons from miskey or rifles due to the availability of material from Beta 1.14. There are some drawings that will not work in the game. Gameplay You will be born on a small land, which will serve as a base. Initially, you have a selection of basic resources such as stone, wood, berries, some iron mines, and zombie wander around. You'll see that the water has fallen pretty fast, but don't worry. It is the most popular element that can discover whenever you need it. However, your first goal is to survive and collect food to fight hunger. After that, you will have to expand the area to be able to place useful buildings such as bonfires, furnaces, etc. First, you will take some pines and rocks from the ground to create an axe. If you are attacked by zombies or wolves, no panic, you can easily kill anything you see on the map with an axe. If you take too much damage, take berries, which will be your main source of healing. You'll find an abandoned car with scraps inside. It can be used as a container when the body is overloaded. You can take the axe inside the machine to inflict more damage, but note that weapons and armor will lose duration after use. Continue collecting more resources, creating other tools to kill zombies. Graphics As an open-world survival game, you can claim that this game has excellent graphics like Dead by Daylight. In addition, what we see is a 3D graphics dark built on the best and most popular Unreal Engine 4 platform at the moment. Details such as plants, objects and creatures are designed in detail, allowing the player to know everything that happens around them. With this, although it is a survival game, it is not as dark as you think. The publisher has carefully calculated the colors and costumes of the characters to help players get the best experience. The sound in the game repeats only frightening background music, creates a sense of tension, suspense. This can help players get more into the game. You have to survive, right? Be vigilant and make the most accurate choices. Conclusion Although it debuted for 3 years, but the charm of the Last Day on Earth: survival has never decreased. Publishers always know how to keep players up to date attractive events and gifts. Each update is a newly published area. Players will gather there a lot. Therefore, you need to be faster to be able to search for first.
