Free storyline 360 game templates.

Ten. These simple, clean and modern information pages will work well with any subject. For our topic, we are looking for links to useful resources, as well as some video content. Explore hundreds of course initiators, games, click and reveal, information pages, and test templates built specifically for Storyline. And, if we're really excited about what we've produced, we're also happy to share it with others! So, if you are looking for some new and interesting designs and interactions for your next e-learning project, take a look at these free Storyline 360 templates! 1. Situations are customized by adding characters that change their appearance once they are solved. The best office in history This office-themed course start package is proof that sometimes less is more. Connect with students using characters. Make your content easy to relate by adding more than 100,000 combinations of characters, expressions, and photographic and pictorial poses to your course. Instantly look like a professional with course templates. Choose from hundreds of ready-to-use, professionally designed slide templates with cohesive design and color themes. And, although this pack contains only a few designs, they are very versatile and offer great choices for different types of content, starting with short key points and ending with more detailed descriptions and case studies. As you can see, we let our imagination run wild in some of them, and hope that exploring them will inspire you to try something new and fun in future e-learning projects. Inspired by space travel, this template is really out of this world. Whenever we find the time to participate in these challenges, it is a great learning experience for Layers of Earth Atmospheres. In this free example Storyline 360 you can learn more about the atmosphere of the Earth and what types of flying objects you can find in each layer. 5.
