"Ryan Tedder says that the collaboration helped him finish the lyrics of the song. The style of the accessories and the dance made on the ball are from the period. Watch Video Buy From Amazon Courtesy Interscope "Feel Again" is likely to remindĀ Florence and the MachineĀ fans of their big hit "Dog Days Are Over." Ā Despite the comparisons, the song is a grand upbeat production. "Apologize" became the 10th single to sell more than five million digital downloads in the US. It was filmed on location in West Hills, California. The band indicated that the song is about getting stuck in a rut in life and not knowingĀ how to get out. His new mix added more percussion, new backing vocals, and sound effects. It expanded the album from 12 to 15 tracks including the new single "Love Runs Out" and a dance remix of "If I Lose Myself." Ā Sophie Muller, a veteran music video director, known for her work with Eurythmics, Beyonce, Sade, and many others, directed the video for "Love Runs Out." It bears visual similarities to Sade's "Soldier of Love" music video directed by Sophie Muller. He was the sixth individual of the project in general. Also reminds the music of Las Vegas Rock Band, the Ryan Tedder has explained that the lyrics are about his fear of flying and going down in an airplane. The remix appears on Timbaland's album "Shock Value." Ā "Apologize" took off and became a massive international hit peaking at #2 on the ÁBillboardÁ Hot 100 and ultimately selling over five million copies. The first singles from "Native" were only minor hits. Extensive use in commercial promotions and TV show soundtracks helped move the song up the pop charts. Ā Ryan Tedder acknowledged that OneRepublic had performed the song many times live before releasing the recorded version which he claimed was a "different animal" than what the fans heard live. It ultimately reached the top 10 on the ÁBillboardÁ Hot 100 nearly two years after its initial release and peaked at #1 on the adult pop radio chart and #2 on the adult contemporary radio chart. Ā The song climbed into the top 10 on the adult pop radio chart and peaked just inside the top 20 of the ÁBillboardÁ Hot 100. After being dropped from a recording contract by Columbia Records, Timbaland's Mosley Music Group rescued them with a new contract. It includes cameo appearances by multiple well-known actors including Nicolas Cage, Cate Blanchett, and Anne Hathaway. Ryan Tedder began writing "Counting Stars" while he was waiting for Beyonce to appear at a recording session. "Secrets" brought OneRepublic success throughout central Europe hitting the pop top 5 in Germany, Austria, and Poland. Ā "Secrets" was released first as a single in Germany and Austria because it appears on the soundtrack to the film "Zweiohrkuken." It was a sequel to the film "Keinohrhasen" that used the band's breakthrough single "Apologize" for its soundtrack. It ultimately sold more than two million copies. Ā "Stop and Stare" climbed to #12 on the Billboard Hot 100 and hit #2 on adult pop radio. Directed by Noble Jones, the accompanying music video built upon an idea from Sophie Muller. The clip takes place in the Palmdale, California desert at an old gas station. It also surged into the top 10 on the dance radio chart. It shows off lead vocalist Ryan Tedder's falsetto range. The fan is shown in the video engaging in a wide range of sports and other outdoor activities to demonstrate a full use of one's life on earth. Ā However, after signing the band to his label in the wake of the group being dropped by Columbia, Ā Timbaland Ā remixed the song and released it under his name featuring OneRepublic. Reportedly, "Love Runs Out" was intended to be the first single from the initial release of "Native," but Ryan Tedder could not finish writing the chorus in time. The surreal imagery includes multiple versions of OneRepublic's leader Ryan Tedder. The album "Native" became OneRepublic's first top 10 hit on the album chart. He said the decision to donate a portion of the proceeds to Save the Children's Every Beat Matters campaign added a sense of seriousness and gravity to "Feel Again." The accompanying music video unfolds in a redwood forest near San Francisco, California. Ā Watch Video Buy From Amazon Courtesy Interscope Ryan Tedder says the single "If I Lose Myself" was inspired by his own personal fear of flying. Ā Benny Blanco co-wrote the song, and Tim Bergling, aka Avicii, produced it. The accompanying music video for "Stop and Stare" was directed by Anthony Mandler, known for his frequent collaborations with Rihanna. The music video notes that Bryan Warnecke and his friends raised for cystic fibrosis research. Ā Released as the third single from the album "Waking Up," the commercial success of "Good Life" was slow in coming. He debated whether he should share it with the star, but he decided it wasn't a suitable song for her. It was OneRepublic's ninth top 40 hit on the Billboard Hot 100. "Counting Stars" was a massive international pop hit hitting #1 in the U.K., Canada, and Brazil. The song hit stores as the first official single from the band's third studio album "Native." It became a top 40 hit at adult pop and mainstream pop radio. The third video is the official one to support the song. OneRepublic performed "If I Lose Myself" live on "American Idol" with Ā Katharine McPhee. The inclusion of "Good Life" on trailers for films like "Eat Pray Love" and advertising for TV shows including "Gossip Girl," "One Tree Hill," and "Cougar Town" helped boost the song's visibility. Another commercial use of the song occurred when it appeared in the advertising launching Apple's iPhone 4.
