Adjective Clauses

Here is a brief review of adjective clauses:

-An adjective clause is used to describe a noun:
The car, which was blue, belonged to Ethel.

-A relative pronoun is usually used to introduce an adjective clause:
Pablo, who is an English teacher, lives in Sarapiquí.

Relative Clauses

Defining clauses

Defining Clauses give very important information.
 If we remove this type of clauses, the sentence doesn't make sense.
 Don't use commas
That → who / which
 Did you see the programme about the woman who saved his little child?

Non-defining clauses

Non-defining Clauses give extra information.
 The sentence makes sense without the relative clause.
 The use of commas
 Cristiano Ronaldo, who is famous Portuguese footballer, plays in the Real Madrid.

1 Complete the sentences with a relative pronoun.
