MudRunner is an offroad simulation game launched on OS and Android platforms. MudRunner is one of the most famous simulation games released in 2017 for PC, PS4 and Xbox. Focus Home Interactive is responsible for developing the game for smartphones. The game will take you on a challenging yet exciting off-road journey. Join the game, players need to transport valuable goods over rough terrain and do not damage the goods and reduce the impact on transportation. Best of all, MudRunner requires players to drive through terrain and traps with flawless simulations. For people who love this genre, MudRunner breaks the hearts of gamers with its physics engine. The game conveys most of the sensations that the drivers of these cars experience in the external environment, such as plants and mud stuck to the car. Gives the player a dusty feel. According to publisher Focus Home Interactive, this time MudRunner for Nintendo Switch will offer players the original game with most of the DLC released so far. This version is now available on Nintendo Switch with over 30 vehicles, 60 features and 10 different maps from the original game. How to play MudRunner? Avoid getting stuck A vehicle stuck in rough terrain is a big problem in MudRunner. To avoid this, you need to understand how the gearbox works, know the difference between 1, 1+ and reverse gear. 1+ is like 1. But the torque is higher, which helps you drive, crawl, bulldoze or climb better. However, be careful that the speed does not drop below the threshold, otherwise you will die. Increase speed carefully so that the wheel does not continue to spin. In the hard difficulty, we will not find the differential lock in the automatic transmission. So you need to know how to drive a car with a manual transmission. Limiting the maximum speed Limit the maximum acceleration to reduce the speed of the bike. This will make it easier for you to keep the level of wheel slip low. And it reduces the amount of mud splashed on the vehicle Dig deeper into the muddy path. You can move the gear lever back and forth between first and reverse to reach the speed limit. Explore the Path Not all tracks in MudRunner are created equal. Be careful when driving as each road surface has different friction and hardness. Pay attention to the color of the floor, because the darker the color, the softer the floor, and vice versa. Heavy trucks have an advantage on soft dirt roads because of the high torque and wheels. But the risk of getting stuck is greater on muddy roads. On the other hand, lighter vehicles perform better on dry, hilly rock. The lift is salvation. Every vehicle in MudRunner is equipped with an all-important winch. It is used to help the driver in difficult situations, e.g. when the vehicle is stuck on the road. Then you can use the winch to hang on another vehicle or trees on the road and save yourself from the swamp. Do not underestimate it, you will have to use it many times during the game. Vision is very important. On Hardcore difficulty, they don't show the path to the destination on the screen. When the game screen is fully open, you can choose as you like. But be careful because the world in MudRunner level is very dangerous. Many routes look normal but contain unexpected hazards. It's best to use a scout vehicle to run up the hill and scout the area first, or unlock vantage points to expand your line of sight. And just like in real life, there's nothing more frustrating than running out of fuel on the road. If you don't want your simple van to turn into a rescue mission soon, bring enough fuel to complete the game level. Overall Rating The game takes place in the countryside of Siberia, where players have to drive and overcome many obstacles. You will challenge the terrain to reach the goal. Beating Terrain and day-night transition with the most extreme conditions, players complete the journey and complete their missions. Face wild rivers, rocky cliffs and haunted swamps to reach the end of the MudRunner trail. In the game, you can use 16 unique cars to drive in 15 different environments. These environments include rivers, forests, mountains and swamps. The vehicles in the game also range from light to heavy military trucks. You have to complete linear missions to earn resources in extreme conditions.
